

The Virginia Family Network and the Campaign for Children's Mental Health

Present

Crisis Planning for Families of Children with Mental Health Needs

Monday, December 3, 2012

5:30-8:00 p.m.

Weinstein JCC

5403 Monument Ave, Richmond, VA 23226

This free training will include a panel of experts to speak on:

- how to prevent mental health crises
- how to be prepared when a crisis occurs
- what resources are available in the greater Richmond area

Panel includes mental health clinicians, a police officer trained in crisis response, a parent and a youth. Come with questions!

The training is FREE and dinner is included. Child care stipends and travel reimbursements are available, but you must register!

Please register at:

www.namivirginia.org/programs/virginia-family-network

Questions? Please contact Stephany Melton Hardison at the Virginia Family Network (smelton@namivirginia.org or 804-285-8264 x206) or Margaret Nimmo Crowe at the Campaign for Children's Mental Health (margaret@vakids.org or 804-649-0184 x23).

Special thanks to the Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services for their generous support of this training.