Emily,

Thank you so much for sending the Voices for Virginia's Children Questionnaire. As you know, Delegate Habeeb believes that our children are valuable and fights to support policies that have their best interests in mind.

Delegate Habeeb finds that candidate questionnaires are not the best way for him to communicate his positions with his constituents and, therefore, he does not complete them. Instead, he is proud to stand on his record over the past 7 sessions and is always happy to have in depth conversations with constituents or advocacy groups. With respect to Voices for Virginia's Children, he appreciates your work and looks forward to working with you going forward.

Best,

Jeremy

Hello,

I wanted to send one last friendly reminder that the deadline to complete our 2017 Voices Candidate Questionnaire is this Friday (7/21)! We have extended the deadline for candidates whose opponent(s) have already submitted responses as a courtesy. You should have also received a courtesy call this afternoon notifying you of this. However, this extended deadline is firm, so we must have all responses by 7/21 in order to publish them on our website.

Click here to be taken to a SurveyMonkey with the 8 questions on child well-being, and click here to be taken to a PDF file of the questions to read before starting the survey.

All responses received will be published verbatim on our website, vakids.org. We request that your full response to each question not exceed 300 words. If a response is over our word limit, we will only publish the first 300 words. If you do not respond, the publication will state, "Did Not Respond."

Voices for Virginia's Children is a statewide, privately-funded, nonpartisan organization that champions public policies that improve the lives of Virginia's children. As a tax exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, we do not endorse any candidate for public office.

We hope that you will take this opportunity to communicate your views on policies and investments regarding children and their families. If you have any questions, feel free to email or call at the contact info below.

Thanks,
