Dear Emily:

Thank you for your legislative survey. I understand your interest in obtaining information from all of the candidates on issues of importance. Unfortunately, due to the volume of such requests I receive, I am not always able to address every one. Additionally, due to the survey questions or interpretation of the survey answers provided, my positions and views may be misconstrued. I am not suggesting that this may happen with your particular survey, but I have adopted the policy of letting my voting record speak for me, rather than completing every questionnaire received.

For the past 19 years I have taken thousands of votes on a variety of issues for which I can be held accountable. If you examine my record, you should be able to easily discern my past positions.

Thank you for understanding. If any of your members who are residents of the 25th House District wish to meet to discuss issues that they may be interested in, I am more than happy to do so. If you wish to discuss any legislative matter with me, or if you have any questions about my position, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
