

Virginia Summit on Childhood Trauma & Resilience

APRIL 25, 2019
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: NADINE BURKE HARRIS, MD, MPH, FAAP

To mark the milestone of its 25th anniversary, Voices for Virginia's Children will host the Virginia Summit on Childhood Trauma and Resilience on April 25, 2019 in Richmond, Virginia with a number of key partner organizations. Voices is working closely with Greater Richmond Stop Child Abuse Now (SCAN), the Family and Children's Trust Fund (FACT), Families Forward, and others to plan a summit that will focus on both policy changes and practices that need to change to prevent adverse childhood experiences and promote resilience.
