

SAVE THE DATE!

RACISM IS A PUBLIC HEALTH CRISIS: A WEBINAR SERIES

The Institute for Public Health Innovation is pleased to partner with Voices for Virginia's Children and the Virginia Public Health Association to present a webinar series that will explore the background, context, and future of Virginia's recent resolution declaring racism as a public health crisis.

April 16th, 12pm-1:30pm:

"Declaring Racism a Public Health Crisis in VA"
Register here!

Future Webinars:

June:

"The National Landscape & Next Steps for VA"

August:

"Community Perspectives on Racism as a Public Health Crisis"

October:

"From Declaration to Action"

Contact
repstein@institutephi.org for more information about the webinars.

DECLARING RACISM A PUBLIC HEALTH CRISIS IN VA

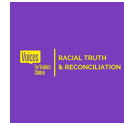

Part of the 'Racism is a Public Health Crisis Webinar' Series

April 16th, 2021

12pm-1:30pm

Register here

Key Speakers Include:

Delegate Lashrecse Aird,
VA House of Delegates,
63rd District

Cynthia Hudson,
Chair Commission to Examine Racial Inequity in Virginia Law

Tina Stevens
Councilwoman for Stephens City, VA

Chloe Edwards
Policy Analyst
Voices for Virginia's Children

